

Seven Dreams of Gaudí

A MUSICAL TRIBUTE TO ANTONI GAUDÍ

The Gaudí Centennial Music Experience

Two Unforgettable Concerts in Barcelona | June 10 & 11, 2026

Premium Accommodations at 5-star Renaissance Barcelona Hotel (June 8 to 12, 2026)

Celebrate the centennial of Antoni Gaudí's legacy where art, architecture, and music converge in the heart of Barcelona. These exclusive concerts are part of the official celebration of Gaudí Year 2026, commemorating the centennial of the architect's death and the completion of the final tower in Sagrada Família. The package offers premium access to two historic concerts, cultural immersion, and once-in-a-lifetime experiences for discerning music lovers.

CONCERT ONE

Palau de la Música Catalana

Tuesday, June 10, 2026 | 8:00 PM

Witness the world premieres of 84 Bells, featuring the historic bells designed by Gaudí himself and Seven Dreams of Gaudí, a choral symphony with world renowned Marin Alsop leading London's Philharmonia, soprano soloist Nuria Real, and three choirs from the Orfeo Català, honoring the visionary architect's life, faith, and enduring legacy. Experience this unprecedented celebration in Barcelona's jewel-box concert hall—a UNESCO World Heritage Site and architectural masterpiece by Lluís Domènech i Montaner.

CONCERT TWO

Public Outdoor Concert in historic Plaça Catalunya

Wednesday, June 11, 2026 | 8:30 PM

Reserved Premium Seating at this free public concert celebration featuring an encore performance of 84 Bells, cast for the first time by master craftsman Galdric Santana and destined for La Sagrada Família. Hear the sacred soundscape Gaudí envisioned over a century ago, brought to life beneath the Barcelona sky. The program will also include selections from Beethoven's 7th Symphony, F1 theme song and other local favorites.
